

An Hour of Remembrance & Joshua March Sunday, January 22

Roe v Wade Memorial in Waco 39 years of abortion in America and 17 years in Waco

On Sunday, January 22nd, we are holding "An Hour of Remembrance" for the 18,000 pre-born babies unjustly killed by Planned Parenthood at the now-closed abortion clinic at 1927 Columbus Avenue. The event will recognize the passing of 39 years since Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision. There will be short presentations of experiences of those who have counseled for life at Columbus Avenue and women who entered the facility with the intention of abortion.

Following remembrance ceremony, we will drive to Planned Parenthood's current abortion location at 1121 Ross Avenue to hold a "Joshua March" around this facility.
